For those of you who were unable to attend ALA Midwinter in January, Nancy Powell has submitted this report:

ACRL REPORT FROM ALA MIDWINTER - January, 1987

Chapters Council meeting:

Jan Fennell, Chapters Council Chair, opened the meeting by having the members present introduce themselves and their Chapter. She then introduced the Council officers and the ACRL officers in attendance including JoAn Segal, Executive Director, and our own Pat Wand, Chair, Budget and Finance.

The Chapters representatives proceeded to review/discuss chapter programs and activities that had been successful or not during the past year. Some ideas presented which ACRL/OR might consider for future programs include the following: 1) offer more than one Continuing Education course concurrently; 2) offer a pre-conference to the ACRL/WA conference co-sponsored by Oregon and Washington; 3) co-sponsor a CE course with the College of Business or another academic unit; 4) develop a resource list of member expertise---annotated; 5) develop an informative flyer about chapter membership; 6) develop a forum on faculty views of the academic library using local faculty as speakers; 7) conduct a survey of members for issues to address; 8) publish a directory of interest groups; and 9) coordinate a series of open houses to see special collections around the state and meet the librarians who serve these collections. [If any of these ideas sounds interesting to you, contact one of the Board members listed on the back of this Newsletter.]

ACRL Business meeting:

Jan Fennell, Chapters Council Chair, opened the meeting with a welcome and introduced our Chapters Council ACRL staff member Emma Miller. Jan then introduced the Council officers and Joanne Euster, President-Elect, ACRL. Joanne introduced her them, "Fostering Creativity and Entrepreneurial Behavior within Academic Libraries." She asked us to consider carrying this theme throughout our Chapter programs.

Hannelore Rader, current ACRL President, discussed the "President's Program" in San Francisco which will be on MONDAY, JUNE 29th, from 2-5pm, at the University of San Francisco. The program will focus on "Strengthening Liaison with Faculty and Administrators." Presentors will be followed by discussion groups working to develop action plans. THE PROGRAM WILL NEED ABOUT 30 DISCUSSION LEADERS. IF YOU PLAN TO BE IN SAN FRANCISCO AND ARE INTERESTED IN SERVING AS A DISCUSSION GROUP LEADER, contact JoAn Segal, ACRL Executive Director, 50 East Huron St., Chicago, IL, 60611, (312) 944-6780, as soon as possible.

Jan then opened discussion on the ACRL STRATEGIC PLAN, available in abbreviated form for review in the January, 1987, issue of College & Research Library News, and summarized below in this issue of the Newsletter. This plan was developed by the membership to give direction for ACRL in the next five years. With regard to Goal I: "special program funding," send in more proposals!

There was considerable discussion around Goal III: the recruiting and retention of librarians. Chapters could consider working on scholarship programs and/or developing strategies for retention of good librarians.

Goal IV refers, in part, to grant writing. This might be a good program to consider for a Continuing Education course.

There is a need for "planning" in relation to the Strategic Plan. We need to examine our goals and develop guidelines for implementing the Plan in Oregon. Send your suggestions to me.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Powell, President
ACRL/Oregon Chapter

ACRL'S STRATEGIC PLAN

At the 1986 ALA Annual Conference in New York, the ACRL Strategic Planning Task Force presented the Strategic Plan to the ACRL Board of Directors, who then adopted it. This action was taken after the ACRL Task Force members had developed the plan over a two-year period. Building on the earlier work of the Committee on an Activity Model for the 1990's, the Task Force used background research work, a member survey, a large membership meeting (at the 1985 Annual Conference), intermediate publication and solicitation of responses, an Open Forum (at the 1986 Midwinter Meeting), and hours of intensive work to prepare the plan.

The final report of the Task Force has been deposited in the ERIC system, and an abbreviated version is presented in the January, 1987, issue of College & Research Library News, p.21-25, for the information of all ACRL members.

According to Hannelore Rader, current ACRL President, "the Plan is not fixed; rather, it will constantly be added to and changed. The ACRL Planning Committee is developing a method for regular updating of the Plan, and is seeking suggestions from members for items which should be included in future years....An important feature of the Plan is that it does not stop with vague goals and objectives, but specifies some strategies for carrying out the objectives, and identifies the ACRL unit or officer who will have responsibility for specific parts of carrying out the strategy...."

The main portion of the Strategic Plan consists of four goals, each of which has a varying number of subgoals and objectives. The full plan includes strategies for each objective, and indicators of responsibility, resources needed, and year of implementation. The following is an outline of the goals as they appeared in the C&RL News article:

- GOAL I: To contribute to the total professional development of academic and research librarians - includes such areas as
- lowering costs for librarians who wish to participate in ACRL professional development activities
 - expanding CE activities in regional locations
 - reviewing awards available to enhance professional identity and peer recognition and reinforcement
 - providing career counseling and placement information, including timely and comprehensive information on professional positions available
- GOAL II: To enhance the capability of academic and research libraries to serve the needs of users - includes such areas as
- developing guidelines for performance evaluations of librarians and output measures for academic and research libraries
 - increasing librarians' awareness of their role in the institutional accreditation process
 - providing advisory services concerning academic and research libraries
 - enhancing and evaluating innovative library operations and services
 - strengthening libraries in institutions serving minorities
- GOAL III: To promote and speak for the interests of academic and research librarianship - includes such areas as
- enhancing working relationships with faculty and administrators in the larger academic community to improve understanding of the role of academic and research libraries
 - monitoring and speaking out on government and private sector activities affecting librarianship, including legislation and fiscal and political support on all levels
 - recruiting and retaining outstanding persons to the field of academic librarianship
 - helping shape library education programs in accord with the needs of academic and research librarianship
- GOAL IV: To promote study, research and publication relevant to academic and research librarianship - includes such areas as
- identifying research topics and improving research skills, including incentives or programs to encourage librarians to engage in research
 - supporting and disseminating research results
 - developing an effective publishing program, including exploration of electronic publishing for ACRL publications

These goals and objectives are more specifically delineated in the final report of the ACRL Strategic Planning Task Force, available in ERIC, or by contacting Susan Klingberg, Chair of the Task Force. If you have additional comments, suggestions, or modifications to the ACRL Strategic Plan or how it might be implemented in Oregon, contact Nancy Powell, ACRL/OR Chapter President, Oregon State University, Kerr Library, Corvallis, OR, 97331. Telephone: 754-3339.

Would you like to represent ACRL at academic events held in your state or region? Are you interested in volunteering for a committee that gives you the opportunity to network in social settings? If the answer is yes, keep reading.

ACRL staff and officers often receive invitations from academic institutions to attend dedications of library buildings and other academic events. Because of scheduling conflicts they usually have to turn down the invitation. It has been suggested by several members that ACRL form a committee of members who would attend these affairs as representatives of ACRL.

As a representative you would receive an official 'ACRL Representative to Academic Events' certificate plus a supply of 'ACRL' blue ribbons, to be worn to each affair. ACRL will also reimburse representatives for limited mileage.

For more information on how you can become a representative fill out the volunteer form and return to:
Ema L. Miller, ACRL/ALA, 50 E. Huron, Chicago, IL 60611

ACRL/OR CHAPTER ADVISORY BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Advisory Board met on February 6, at Portland State University. Highlights of the agenda include the following:

1. ACRL/OR will be involved in various activities at the OLA/WLA Joint Conference, April 22-25, 1987.
 - a. A preconference session on Improving Job Performance: Strategies for Managers [Editor's note: THIS SESSION IS NOW FILLED.]
 - b. ACRL Academic Librarians' Breakfast, featuring Maureen Pastine, Director of Libraries, Washington State University, who will discuss "Librarians and the International Experience." [See registration form included in this Newsletter. Note APRIL 10th deadline.]
 - c. ACRL will co-sponsor the BNA Reception on Wednesday, April 22, 4-7pm, to be held in the Washington Room of the Red Lion. Plan to attend if you will be at the Conference.
2. Oregon Coalition for Libraries - Lynn Chmelir gave a report on the status of OCL, and distributed a draft copy of the proposed "Constitution and Bylaws of the Oregon Coalition for Libraries." Discussion followed, and a motion was approved as follows:
MOTION: The ACRL Board supports the creation of a strong, comprehensive state library organization. Until bylaws for such an organization are in place, interim bylaws should be adopted. The presently proposed bylaws and constitution do not create the kind of strong organization we look for.
3. A letter has been sent to members who have not yet paid their dues, to encourage them to renew their membership. To determine when your membership is up for renewal, check the upper right-hand corner of your mailing label affixed to this Newsletter. If you find 10/86 there, fill out the Membership Form in this Newsletter and print RENEWAL at the top of the form. Please pay your dues promptly.
4. Nancy Powell recommends that the Chapter apply for "Special Program Funding" for Continuing Education courses every October 1st. Terry Soohoo reported that our next ACRL CE course will be "Public Service under Pressure," tentatively scheduled for April, 1988, as an OLA preconference.
5. A Nominating Committee needs to be appointed to prepare the slate of incoming officers. Also, an ACRL/OR Chapter liaison with the 1988 OLA Conference Planning Committee is needed. If interested in serving in either position, contact Nancy Powell.
6. The National Medical Library Association will be meeting in Portland, May 18-24. Leslie Wykoff indicated that one day's free attendance will be provided in exchange for volunteering to help the Facilities Committee. Interested? Contact Leslie, at 225-8026, for further details.

The next meeting of the Advisory Board will be held Thursday noon, April 23, 1987, at the OLA/WLA Joint Conference.

LONG RANGE PROGRAM FOR LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT IN OREGON

The State Advisory Council on Libraries will meet in Salem at the Oregon State Library on APRIL 10, 1987, to consider revisions to the LONG RANGE PROGRAM FOR LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT IN OREGON and to the application guidelines for Library Services and Construction Act grants. The Council will also hear reports on recent activities at the State Library and on the status of Federal funding for libraries.

The Advisory Council has the primary responsibility for advising the State Librarian on the use of Federal funds, appropriated under the Library Services and Construction Act. It is comprised of librarians representing different types of libraries, and citizens representing various library user groups. The Chair of the Council is JULIANNE WILLIAMS of Beaverton.

The State Librarians and the Advisory Council Chair encourage any interested parties to attend the meeting and to express their concerns for the development of Oregon's libraries. Individuals will have the opportunity to do so during the OPEN FORUM, from 11:30am to 12:30pm. Speakers are requested to furnish 15 copies of their remarks to the Chair at the meeting.

The State Advisory Council on Libraries meeting will begin at 10:00am, in Room 14, of the Oregon State Library. For further information, contact Wes Doak, Oregon State Librarian, 378-4367.

LEGISLATIVE ALERTLEGISLATIVE ALERTLEGISLATIVE ALERTLEGISLATIVE ALERT

Recently, the STATEWIDE RESOURCE SHARING PROGRAM (a portion of the State Library's budget proposal which included provision for development of the Oregon Database, establishment of a statewide borrower's card, improved interlibrary telecommunications and document delivery, continuation and expansion of the Pacific Northwest Conspectus Database, and establishment of a "last copy" depository) did NOT make it through the Governor's budget and did NOT appear in the appropriation of the Education Subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee. It is anticipated that it will also NOT pass the Ways and Means Committee as this Newsletter goes to the printer.

However, a portion of this program has been revived and introduced as SB735, a Senate Bill which would establish a statewide library card program. Under this bill, any person residing in a jurisdiction with a public library may apply for a statewide library card at any participating public library in the state. It would allow the person to borrow any library materials from any public library which has decided to participate in the program. Libraries would also be reimbursed for lending services accrued under this program. This bill was referred to the Senate Education Committee on March 16.

IMPORTANT: If you support this bill, contact Senator Cliff Trow, Chair of the Senate Education Committee, and request that SB735 be scheduled for a hearing by APRIL 17. CALL 1-800-327-7389 TODAY.
