OLA INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM COMMITTEE (OLA IFC)
Book ban incident at North Medford High School (NMHS)

Executive Summary

In response to a formal complaint from a parent, Medford School District (MSD) removed all copies of The Handmaid’s Tale: The Graphic Novel in early April 2022 following a hastily convened Reconsideration Committee meeting. Prior to that meeting, a MSD library staff member contacted the IFC with concerns about the district’s process and potential plans for purging additional works from the library collections. The IFC began corresponding with MSD to determine facts on the case. While the school administration did initially provide a brief response to IFC questions, it then ceased voluntary cooperation when the IFC asked follow-up clarification questions and also requested public records evidence related to the matter.

To fulfill the public records request, MSD requested prepayment of $1,898. The IFC requested that fee be waived, due to significant public interest in the matter. In a letter from its legal counsel, MSD declined to waive fees but offered to respond to written questions. IFC Chairs approached the CBLDF and ACLU-OR organizations for advice on how to navigate a potentially cost-prohibitive fee for its public records request. ACLU staff assisted with a counter-proposal set of questions sent to the MSD attorney on 5/26/22, while reserving the right to pursue the public records request at a later date. Response requested by 6/9/22.

Due to a perceived lack of candor from MSD about this case, the IFC anticipates that the written response will be less than satisfactory, and renewal of the public records request will be needed for corroborating evidence. ACLU-OR is prepared to provide legal representation to OLA in public records pursuit matters, if necessary. OLA Board authorization of ACLU-OR representation is required (Approved by unanimous vote at 6/3/22 meeting).

OBJECTIVES

1. Establish facts to determine:
   a. Did the organization comply with its own written policies?
   b. Was the reconsideration process fair?
   c. Are there Intellectual Freedom concerns with the process and outcome?

2. Highlight any First Amendment concerns in a final report to the organization, OLA, and public.

QUESTIONS PENDING

1. What are the titles of all books removed from District libraries since January 1, 2021?

2. When was The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel added to the Medford High School (“MHS”) library collection?

3. How many times has The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel been checked out at the MHS library?

4. What was the vote of each member of the Reconsideration Committee on the motion to remove The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel from the MHS library?

5. What policy governed the Reconsideration Committee at the time they made their decision?

6. Does policy K.LB (policy code: KLB) currently govern the District? If not, when did the Board rescind that policy?

7. What policy governs tie votes on the Reconsideration Committee? If there was a tie vote regarding The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel, who broke the tie? If there was a tie breaker, was that person involved in all committee discussions and deliberations related to the removal of The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel?

8. What is the process for selecting members of the committee, including qualifications or training the members must have to serve on the committee?

9. Did the committee work with the complainant(s) to restrict access for specific child(ren) before deciding to remove the book entirely? If not, why? If so, please describe the steps taken.

10. Did the committee weigh the benefits of graphic literature to students with Autism Spectrum Disorder and visual learners? If not, why? If so, please describe that consideration and accommodations made to account for the loss of that benefit.

11. What is the appeal process for the District’s decision to remove The Handmaid’s Tale graphic novel?
