* Bookstore crawl

* Style show with 50s music (Nordstorm or Meier & Frank as co-sponsors? at Friday luncheon?)

* Slide show : libraries 50 years ago (see: 50th events)

* Something at the OR Historical Society?

* Something at/or with Multnomah Co. PL? (I talked to Sarah Long. She suggested maybe riding the Lite-rail out to Gresham to visit the new MCPL branch? I suggested they might also want to think about sponsoring the "OR Author's Fair" with Powell's Bookstore?)

*Entertainment option:

Portland Center Stage: Shakespeare (Anne Getman will check on possibility of getting "Conference rate" on tickets for Sat. night)

Please review all these options. Mark the 5-6 that interest you the most; or make other suggestions that you think are more interesting or relevant to the program (particularly major speakers - if they are library related they may forego a request for an honorarium). We need a strong draw audience appeal for the Friday night banquet in particular.

Thank you for your advice, help and service with this program.
