(an irregular publication)

There will be a meeting of the ACRL Oregon Chapter on Friday, February 17, at 1:30 P.M. in the conference room of the Lewis and Clark Library, Portland. The meeting will be chaired by Marcia Lowell, State Librarian.

Please come prepared to discuss the Oregon Governor's Conference to be held in early June. What issues should be raised on behalf of ACRL? Are there goals or objectives of ACRL which should be presented at the conference? This is your chance to provide some input regarding the concerns of academic libraries and librarians. Come with your ideas.
